

Success Stories

Overview

Customer: Maytex

Country: Egypt

Industry: Manufacturing

Business Situation

Working with on premise Exchange Server 2003 on Windows Server 2003, Maytex faces a problem in using an old technology, that is about to be out of support, in their most important services to the business, email solution.

Solution

Office 365 was the best fit solution for migrating from on premise Exchange Server 2003, avoiding the headache of the migration to on premise Exchange Server 2013, and more cost effectively.

Products

- Microsoft Office 365

Office 365 solved Fulbright Commission problems faced while hosting Exchange On Premise

"Office 365 enabled us to use the latest in the email solutions technologies, without the need to invest a lot in new hardware and license"

Mohamed Abbas, IT Manager, Maytex

Situation

Maytex was working with on premise Exchange Server 2003 on Windows Server 2003, They were facing many problems in using an old technology, that is about to be out of support, in their most important services to the business, email solution.

Thinking of upgrade to Exchange Server 2013, and Windows Server 2012, we found that it will be very expensive to invest in new hardware, software, and administration cost, alongside with the need of a Highly Available email solution.

Solution

- Office 365 solution was best fit for the case.
- Being able to work with the latest Microsoft's Email solutions and technologies, in few days, without investing a lot in new hardware and software, was an ideal solution for Maytex.

Benefits

No upfront cost

No need for making large investment in new hardware and software.

Simple Administration

Office 365 simplifies the administration of the mail system.

Lower the cost of the email system

Office 365 was the best in ROI for the email system, removing the headache of complex administration, upgrade of the Hardware and Software, is ideal in this case.

